

Friends with Food

Working closely with Food Bank of Lincoln, Carol Yoakum Family Resource Center offers a weekly food distribution program that serves nearly 100 families every week. A key part of the program is the support of volunteers who do the work of setting up and distributing the food each week.

Lincoln Housing Charities is supporting the Friends with Food Program by obtaining grants and donations for program expenses.

